Broken Tablets

The High Holidays will soon be upon us. Each year they seem to come quicker and quicker. Each year I also hear congregants say that the Holidays are either early or late. They never state what is fact. The Holidays are ALWAYS on time, with Rosh Hashanah ALWAYS falling on Tishrei 1! What they mean, is that relative to the Gregorian calendar most of us live by, it is either early or late.

So that you don't get caught by surprise, let me remind you now that this year, relative to the Gregorian calendar, the Holidays are VERY early. In fact, they occur at one of the earliest times in decades. Selichot, which actually ushers in the whole High Holiday period, is on Saturday night, August 28th, and Rosh Hashanah eve is on Labor Day, Monday, September 6th. So, will your Rosh Hashanah eve Kiddush be followed by a Labor Day barbecue?

Our memories are generally short, but I just have a feeling that many of you remember the High Holidays of last year 5781/2020. They were the strangest and perhaps scariest that many of us have ever experienced. Our synagogue building was physically open, but only a minyan of board members was permitted to attend. Everyone was masked and I conducted services behind a large plexi screen, with 99% of our congregation who wished to experience the services on Livestream. Daily services were on Zoom. Whoever heard of Livestream or Zoom before 2020?

What's more, I unknowingly conducted Yom Kippur evening and day services while Covid positive. I found out late that afternoon during the service break through a rapid Covid test that I was positive. We hurriedly mobilized a phone squad to notify everyone who was present in the building to get tested, telling everyone not to return for closing Yom Kippur services. Fortunately, everyone tested negative!

I recall the fatigue I experienced at the time. Until I found out I had Covid, I attributed this greater than usual fatigue to the regular strain Jewish clergy endure during this intense period in our calendar. I returned to an empty building to complete Mincha and Neilah services solo while Covid positive, without breaking my fast. It was a very scary experience to say the least.

As we rapidly approach these High Holidays of 5782, I am reminded of a statement in the Babylonian Talmud: After Moses broke the first set of tablets of the Ten Commandments, when the Israelites resumed their forty-year journey in the desert, they took with them not only the new set of tablets Moses brought, but also the broken ones. (Berachot 8a-b). This they did as a reminder of the fateful Golden Cow incident that led Moses to smash the first set. It was also a reminder of how close they came to suffering a terrible fate from God's wrath over their egregious sin, were it not for God's compassion and forgiveness, a central motif of the Holidays.

These High Holidays I will be deeply cognizant of what happened last year, not only around the Holidays but during the entire past year and a half. I will be aware of all the wonderful people our congregation lost, of empty seats and conspicuous gaps in the pews. Some succumbed to Covid, others to other sicknesses or natural causes. Amongst them are beloved members of our own family and closest friends, some in Toledo, others throughout the USA, in South Africa or elsewhere in the world.

The words of the powerful Unetaneh Tokef prayer recited on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, "mi yichyeh umi yamut... - who will live and who will die..." will echo passionately through the high domed ceiling of our shul, as we recall all we lost, all that happened, and how we and the world have changed. We will carry with us these broken tablets of our hearts as a constant reminder, for the Jewish High Holidays are after all a Yom Hazikaron – a Time of Remembrance. We will carry those broken tablets with us until such time as these Holidays or the days ahead, no matter how far in the future, bring a measure of healing and comfort and hope.

That healing can begin with our Selichot evening on August 28th at 8:30 PM (we can't begin till dark at the end of Shabbat). Please join us for an inspiring spiritual experience.

L'shana tova!

October Zoom Program Welcomes Jonathan Tobin

In my article this month I have chosen to utilize the space to introduce Jonathan Tobin. He will be the featured speaker on our Zoom program on Sunday, October 24th, at 7:00 p.m. (see page 9). The topic of the program will be entitled “The challenge of anti-Semitism, why Jews must confront both left and right-wing anti-Semitism.” CBI along with the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo, Etz Chayim and Shomer Emunim will all be cosponsoring the event. In lieu of Mr. Tobin’s international recognition, we’re all hoping for a great online turnout for this important Zoom event. You will see advertisements in a variety of our local Jewish bulletins and newspapers over the next few months.

Jonathan S. Tobin is the editor in chief of the Jewish News Syndicate — JNS.org — an international wire service covering the Jewish world and Israel. He’s also a senior contributor for The Federalist, and a columnist for Newsweek, the New York Post, Haaretz and Israel Hayom, as well as writing regularly for other publications such as the Washington Examiner and Commentary magazine. On a daily basis, his writing covers the American political scene, foreign policy, the U.S.-Israel relationship, Middle East diplomacy and the Jewish world.

He is also the host of a weekly podcast “Top Story with Jonathan Tobin,” available on JNS.org, iTunes, Spotify, YouTube, Amazon and Google podcasts.

Previous to becoming editor of JNS, Mr. Tobin was executive editor and then later senior online editor and chief political blogger for Commentary magazine. Prior to that he was editor-in-chief of the Jewish Exponent in Philadelphia and before that the editor of the Connecticut Jewish Ledger.

Mr. Tobin has won more than 50 awards for his writing including being named top columnist for Jewish publications ten times, including 2018 and 2019. He appears regularly on television commenting on politics in the United States and Israel, foreign policy and Jewish affairs and lectures on college campuses and to Jewish communities.

Mr. Tobin was born in New York City, attended local schools and studied history at Columbia University.

Religious School Opening Day

Sunday, August 22, 2021 at 9:30 AM

The staff is looking forward to getting back to in-person learning and a great school year at David S. Stone Religious School. Our first day of class is August 22. Please mark your calendar and plan on attending as we welcome everyone back to Congregation B'nai Israel.

We are thrilled to offer our Torah Tots preschool program again this year. There will be an exciting curriculum focused on Jewish holidays, Hebrew, and Jewish values. There is no charge for Torah Tots and it is open to children ages 3-5 years old. Please see the Religious School calendar below for more details. Masks must be worn while in the building.

Hebrew classes are continuing at the Chabad House again this year. This program, beginning on October 6, is open to all students grades K-6. Students, grades 3-6 are required to attend and grades K-2 are strongly encouraged to attend. Classes will be taught by Shmuel Matusof and the tuition is generously covered through CBI.

As we get closer to starting school, final health safety protocols will be shared with everyone.

Enjoy the beautiful summer weather and we are looking forward to seeing everyone soon!

YOU HAVE SUPPORTED
CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL
DURING YOUR LIFETIME.

PLEASE CONSIDER B'NAI ISRAEL
IN YOUR WILL AND OTHER ESTATE PLANNING.

CBI Guidelines for In Person Attendance

- CBI Members that have been FULLY vaccinated are welcome to attend in person services. Fully vaccinated means at least 2 weeks past your second dose.
- The first time you attend in person services, you MUST present your Covid 19 vaccination card showing that you are fully vaccinated.
 - Please do not ask the Usher to “take your word for it”. If you forget your card, please leave the building and come back with your card. No exceptions.
- Only guests that have been FULLY vaccinated are welcome to attend in person services at CBI.
 - The CBI office MUST be notified BEFORE the guest attends so that we have a list for the Usher and Officer on duty.
 - Guests MUST show their Covid 19 vaccination card EVERY TIME they attend CBI services. If they forget their card, they will be asked to leave the building and come back with their card.
- Unvaccinated children MUST wear a mask while in the synagogue.

Updates:

- If you are a CBI member, and have not yet attended services, and are fully vaccinated, you can take a photo of your Covid 19 vaccination card and email it to the CBI office. Please send the photo to Rhoda Miller, rmiller@cbitoledo.org. We will mark your name in our roster as “fully vaccinated”.
- For your safety, when you arrive at the synagogue, we ask that you do not loiter in the lobby area in front of the Sanctuary doors. If the Ark is open, the congregation is standing for a prayer, or the Cantor is speaking or chanting from the Torah, please enter through the Social Hall doors and when appropriate, take your seat. When you enter the Social Hall, be sure to stand at least 5 feet away from the doors.

If the above guidelines preclude you from attending in-person services at CBI, you can instead watch the CBI live stream or zoom services from your home (see instruction on the right column). See the calendar on page 15 for service formats.

The CBI Board will continuously review these safety precautions and make adjustments based on CDC guidelines.

CBI
STREAMING

How to access CBI Live Stream Services

On your Computer, Tablet or Cell Phone:

Go to the CBI website, cbitoledo.org. At the top of the home page click on the “Live Stream” tab. When the page opens, you will be connected to the live stream service.

On your Television:

You can also access the live stream services through your television if you have a “smart” TV, Roku or streaming stick which gives you access to YouTube. Click on the YouTube icon on your TV. When YouTube opens, search for “Congregation B’nai Israel - Sylvania, Ohio”. Note: A number of different “Congregation B’nai Israel” listings will appear. Be sure to click on the listing that has the photo with Jewish star (see photo above). We recommend that you “subscribe” to the channel so you can easily locate the live stream for future services. We also highly recommend connecting to the live stream services on your TV as it is the most immersive and closest experience, short of being in the synagogue.

How to access CBI Zoom Programs & Services

Check your email for the Zoom link and password for CBI Zoom services. Click on the link in the body of the email. If you have never used Zoom, you will be prompted to follow steps to download it on your computer. After that is successful, click on the link provided in the email, type in the provided password and you will be connected to the Zoom service.

A link and passcode will be emailed to congregants.
