Todah Rabah

• Thank you to CBI's "weed-whacking" crew! Helen Michaels, Ann Rosenberg, Fran Weinblatt, Mary Lou Dorf, Alice Applebaum, and Debbie Perlmutter volunteered their time (and muscles) to pull out the overgrown weeds around the perimeter of the CBI building. The staff of CBI greatly appreciates their efforts.

• Thank you to Kris Mann and Helen Grubb for choosing CBI as the location for their wedding ceremony and reception on Sunday, May 22, 2022. Congregation B'nai Israel has not hosted a large private simcha in our Social Hall for a few years due to the pandemic, so it was a joy to be able to do so for Helen and Kris.

The bridal party relaxed in the Library Lounge, the groom's party had a "Tish" in one of the classrooms, and the bedekin and ketubah signing took place in the Chapel. After the wedding ceremony, the bride and groom and their wedding guests celebrated in the Social Hall. We look forward to hosting many more simchas in the future!

Remembering Our Loved Ones

For many of us, one of the most meaningful parts of our services during the High Holy Days is Yizkor on Yom Kippur. It is at that time when we turn our thoughts to our loved ones who have left this earth. We reflect upon their lives, as well as the lives of members of our congregation, and family and friends. In addition, we take the time to formally recognize the Martyrs of our people, especially the Six Million who were murdered during the Shoah, and those who gave their lives for Israel.

Each year, we print a Yizkor Book which contains the Yizkor Service, a list of the synagogue's Memorial Plaques, and a memorial to the Six Million and Israeli victims. Not only is this book substantial and permanent, but those who wish may take it home for use during the year.

I urge you to take advantage of this opportunity, as a way of remembering those dearest to us, and at the same time helping our congregation. An order form is printed below.

The response last year was wonderful! I hope that you will participate this year.

Shana Tova - A Blessed Year, Hazzan Ivor Lichterman

Interviewees include Mel Brooks, Carl Reiner, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, and more.

Running time - 79 minutes, English

The Gefilte Film - Each year the Hermelin family of Detroit comes together to celebrate Passover

Greener Pastures

Monday, July 25 | 7 p.m.

He dreams of buying back his old house and returning live there, but he has no money since losing his pension, and he blames the State. When he realizes that everyone in the nursing home consumes state-sponsored medical cannabis, he finds his way out. Not by smoking, but by selling cannabis, which he gets from the other tenants. When love, police, and the local mafia enter the picture, Dov finds himself at a crossroads where he must decide whether he would be willing to risk everything for what really matters to him.

Fiddler's Journey to the Big Screen

Featuring in-person Q&A with actress Neva Small (Chava)

Monday, July 18 | 7 p.m.

Fifty years after the life-affirming tale of Tevye the milkman leaped from stage to screen, the beloved movie's complete "making-of" odyssey is now told. Rare on-location footage and newly found stills put viewers in the director's chair, while the filmmakers, key collaborators, and cast - including lead actor Topol - offer surprising production anecdotes. This engrossing insider account captures the triumphs and trials of the creative process, and Fiddler's unparalleled impact as a cultural force. Running time - 88 minutes, English

Neva Small is an American theatrical, film, and television actress and singer. She made her singing debut at the age of 10 with New York City Opera as Beverly Sills' daughter. She made her Broadway debut the following year in Jule Styne's musical Something More playing Barbara Cook's daughter. She is best known for her portrayal of Chava, Tevye's third daughter, in the 1971 film Fiddler on the Roof. Her signature role remains a classic. Neva has distinguished herself as a singer and actress in theaters and concert halls across America, on film, and on television.

CBI Library Books to Read or Re-read

In addition to our wonderful selection of fiction and non-fiction books, our CBI library has a small collection of DVD's and books on tape for you to borrow. If interested, please contact Cathy Sperling at (419) 841-1927 to assist you in checking them out and to arrange pick up.

The Jews of New York is a 70-minute DVD which profiles Jewish individuals and institutions that changed the face of New York. Woven together with expert commentary by award-winning actor Tovah Feldshuh (GOLDA'S BALCONY), it presents a broad spectrum of the ways in which the Jewish community has impacted secular New York life from the earliest immigrants through today. These slices of Jewish life in New York reflect the larger community experience - what one people did for a city, and what the city did for them - from medicine to politics; from finance to Broadway; from real estate to retail, including a business that truly represents the quintessential 'flavor' of New York - delicatessen. The Jews of New York debuted in 2008 on New York's WLIW television.

Walking the Bible - A Journey By Land Through the Five Books of Moses is a 2 DVD film with the running time of 168 minutes. Both a heart-racing adventure and an uplifting quest, Walking the Bible presents one man's epic journey by foot, jeep, rowboat, and camel through the greatest stories ever told. From crossing the Red Sea to climbing Mount Sinai to touching the burning bush, Bruce Feiler's inspiring odyssey will bring these well-known bible stories alive. You will visit the slopes of Mount Ararat, where Noah's ark landed, trek the desert outpost where Abraham first heard the words of God, and scale the summit where Moses received the Ten Commandments. Walking the Bible uncovers fresh answers to the most profound questions of the human spirit. New York debuted in 2008 on New York's WLIW television.

Have you visited the CBI Library Lounge?

The Library committee has created our lounge in the former children's play room. We hope you will come in, sit, relax, and peruse some of our newest literary acquisitions during the hours that the synagogue is open. You are welcome to borrow any of these books, as long as you sign them out in our provided card box. For security purposes, please contact the office (419.517.8400) before you arrive.
