Tales of Rediscovery

Many of you are aware how much I like cars, especially older ones like 'American Muscle' from the 1960's and early 70's. I was reading my hard copy Muscle Machines magazine of February 2023, when I came across an interesting editorial entitled 'Tales of Rediscovery.'

The writer, Terry McGean, refers to a video he watched on YouTube of famed rock musician Peter Frampton being handed a favorite guitar he played forty years back in some of his most well-known recordings and many concerts. The guitar was lost for decades when a plane carrying gear for his band crashed and burned. It was assumed everything had been destroyed. Frampton said at the time that the crew's loss of life made investigating the equipment further seem trivial. He accepted that his cherished Les Paul guitar was gone for good.

The writer describes Frampton's reaction as he was handed the guitar for the first time, as "a reunion... that is nearly incredible," and he compares it to stories of vintage car owners rediscovering long-lost rides. He states that "muscle cars and electric guitars are things associated with youth, and the sorts of possessions many people let go of when the next phase of life begins."

As I was reading the article, I was reminded of something that was said when I was honored by CBI past-Presidents for 12 years of service at an event this past Hanukkah. That statement profoundly moved and affected me. I see a strong analogy with the above-described Frampton guitar episode.

After many participants had spoken and reminisced about their association with me, Bill Garber (with kind permission to quote him) recalled nostalgically how much he loved accompanying his grandfather to synagogue in Boston years back, and particularly hearing the Cantor. He thought he would never again experience that kind of live Cantor. Then, Bill said, "you arrived at CBI and, incredibly, I was transported back to those joyful years of my grandfather's Shul and his wonderful Cantor." This, like Peter Frampton, was Bill's own 'tale of rediscovery.'

My entire career I have tried to balance tradition and change, or, the past, adaptation and modernity. During a recent Shabbat drash, I spoke about Exodus 13:19 which states that Moses took Joseph's bones with him when the Children of Israel left Egypt, as they had sworn to Joseph they would do, for interment in the Promised Land. Our sages point out that the Hebrew word atmot – meaning 'bones' is identical to atmut – meaning 'essence,' except for the placement of a dot. In other words they were NOT taking Joseph's bones with them, rather Joseph's essence. Since Joseph's moniker in our tradition is 'hatsadik' – the righteous one, it was incumbent upon the Children of Israel to emulate Joseph's essence when they entered the Promised Land, to establish 'a Kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' (Exodus 19:6)

As a Hazzan I have humbly tried to emulate the 'essence' of my late father and other traditional Hazzanim of the past, while at the same time adapting to contemporary needs and styles. Yet, one has to be careful, as adaptation can be dangerous. Anyone recall the 'rock services' of the 60s and 70s? What happened to those? Styles are fleeting and quickly becoming clichéd, while authentic value generally endures, although I realize that "authentic value" is a very subjective term, regardless whether it is a Les Paul guitar or 60's/70's muscle car. Change for the sake of change can be cheap. Both Reform and Conservative Judaism have changed much with the times. Their enduring effect remains to be seen.

Purim and Pesach, which we shall soon celebrate, are imbued with traditions that have lasted over thousands of years that we all cherish. While we each celebrate in our own ways, the traditions present a common thread that ties it all together. Same with the melody of synagogue prayer and Hazzanut. Go to any Ashkenazic synagogue around the world, and try to find the common thread, what we call the "matbe'a shel tefilah."

Let us all join together for meaningful Purim and Pesach celebrations!

New Torah Mantles for the High Holidays

This past year, the Women of CBI generously donated funds to purchase three beautiful custom Torah Mantles for the High Holidays, replacing a few of the older mantles that were discolored and in need of repair.

The Torah Mantle committee worked with talented textile artist, Margery Langner of Custom Judaica, to create a cohesive design for all ten Torahs in our ark. The price of each Torah Mantle is approximately $2000.

Traditionally, Torah Mantles are purchased as a lasting tribute to honor a simcha or in memory of a beloved loved one. If you or your family would like to purchase one of these beautiful Torah Mantles for the High Holidays, please contact Ann Rosenberg at annrr@bex.net or Anne Bauer at anneb2003@gmail.com for more details.

Siyyum Bechorim

Fast of the First Born

Wednesday, April 5 at 8:00 AM In-Person & Zoom

Join us for minyan and study

Join Congregation B'nai Israel for a Siyyum Bechorim. Those who participate are exempted from fasting.

All are welcome; it is not limited to the first-born.

Because the first-born of the Israelites were saved from the tenth plague, tradition requires that all first-born Jewish males fast from Erev Pesach until the Seder. The fast is called Taanit Bechorim. However, the law states that when any Jew hears the completion of a tractate of Rabbinic Literature, it is cause to celebrate and cancels the fast.

Service of Reaffirmation

Thurs., April 6 at 9:30 AM on In-Person & Live Stream

Since Pesach is exactly six months from the High Holidays, we are afforded the opportunity to reaffirm our connection to God, to Judaism and to Torah, not just once, but at least twice a year. Pesach, when we became a free nation, is the most appropriate time other than the High Holy Days to reaffirm this connection.

Our special service of Reaffirmation will be on the first day of Pesach Saturday, April 16th along with Shabbat and Pesach Morning Services.

Eruv Tavshilin

There is a tradition to make an Eruv Tavshilin for the Holidays when they fall before Shabbat. Since we do not cook on Yom Tov for the next day of Shabbat and we cannot cook meals on Shabbat, we make an Eruv Tavshilin by setting aside two cooked items on Erev Yom Tov, such as a hard boiled egg, challah, meat or fish, and make the following declaration:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו
וְצִוָּנוּ עַל מִצְוֹת עֵירוּב

Baruch ata Ado-noi Elo-heinu melech ha-olam, Asher kid-shanu bi-mitzvo-tav Vi-tzee-vanu, al mitzvat eiruv.

'We bless You our God, Creator of the Universe, Who has sanctified us with Your commandments, and taught us concerning the observance of the eruv.'

By means of this eruv, may we be permitted to bake, cook, keep dishes warm, light candles, and prepare during the Holiday for Shabbat.

Share Your In-Person or Virtual Seder

In most years, friends and family gather to celebrate the Passover Holiday, enjoy a festive Seder meal and the retelling of our ancient Exodus. "Shir HaShirim" - Song of Songs

Saturday, April 8, 2023

9:30 AM In-Person & Live Stream

Join us to hear Hazzan Lichterman explain and chant excerpts from "Shir HaShirim" in English and Hebrew.

"Shir HaShirim" otherwise known as the "Song of Songs" or "Song of Solomon", is a romantic love poem from the Tanakh that is also interpreted as a love song between God and the People of Israel.

Memorialize Your Loved Ones
Come to the Yizkor Service

Saturday, April 13: Services begin at 9:30 AM, Yizkor at 10:45 AM In-Person & Live Stream

Yizkor is a brief service held four times a year, during which individuals ask for Gd's blessing and formally recall the memories of their loved ones who are no longer alive. It is appropriate to quietly recite the names - Hebrew names particularly, or in English, of the loved ones we recall. It is recited for immediate family, but also for grandparents, cousins, and dear friends. It is also customary to light a yahrzeit candle the previous evening in memory of your deceased relatives.

Mehirat Hametz: The Selling of Hametz

The ceremony of removing leaven (bedikat Hametz) is to take place Tuesday evening, April 4, 2023. Hametz may be eaten until 10:30 AM on Wednesday, April 5, 2023. The Passover home atmosphere is created each year by the traditional practice of thoroughly cleansing the home, and by the removal of hametz, or leaven, in preparation for Pesach, as well as throughout the Passover days, both at home and away.

The term hametz is applied not only to foods, but also to the dishes and utensils in which the foods are prepared or served during the year. "Any manner of hametz (leavened food or utensils) owned by a Jew during the Passover holiday is forbidden to use."

Since conditions make it impossible to literally fulfill the Biblical command to destroy all leavened products, our sages instituted a practice called Mehirat Hametz, the selling of hametz. We are reminded of the necessity to divest ourselves of ownership of hametz, and make our home ritually ready.

The sale of hametz is conducted between a representative of the synagogue and a non-Jew. After Passover the hametz is repurchased by the Jewish community.

If you would like Cantor Lichterman to sell your hametz, please fill out the form below and return it to the synagogue office no later than Wednesday, April 5th, following morning minyan, or no later than 10:30 AM that day.

Don't Sell All your Hametz!

When cleaning out your cupboard and pantries in preparation for Pesach, consider donating unopened packages of hametz and canned goods to a food pantry such as JFS. Items such as crackers, rice, cookies, lentils, tuna, and peanut butter will be gratefully accepted by these organizations and passed on to those whose cupboards are empty.

Let those who are hungry this Passover season share in your celebration by receiving food that you might otherwise "sell" or dispose of. Please call JFS directly at 419.885.2561 to coordinate drop-off of your food donation.

Authorization for Sale of Hametz

THIS PROGRAM IS OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

I, the undersigned, fully empower and permit Hazzan Ivor Lichterman to act in my behalf to sell all hametz possessed by me - knowingly or unknowingly - as defined by Torah and rabbinic law, and to lease all places wherein hametz owned may be found. This transaction will be in effect for the duration of Pesach. This form must be in the office by no later than 10:30 AM on Wednesday, April 5, 2023. Notes from our Principal

We are looking forward to celebrating Purim with the entire Jewish community on Sunday, March 5th at Shomer Emunim. There will be an exciting Purim carnival, with fun for all ages. Monday evening will follow with "Marvelous Mitzvot, Megillah, & Spiel Cabaret at Club CBI", CBI's Purim celebration and dinner. I hope everyone can join us for these festive celebrations. The CBI Purim event on Monday night is free for all religious school families. Please RSVP to Kim at kbrody@cbitoledo.org by February 27th.

Our older students (grades 7 -10) are fortunate to have the opportunity to go to Cleveland on March 12th with students from Shomer Emunim to tour the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage where they will see the exhibits "An American Story" and "This Light of Ours: Activist Photographers of the Civil Rights Movement". They will also see Joe Shuster's, House and Home of Superman; Jerry Siegel's House; and additional Jewish history sights throughout the city. This opportunity is made possible through a generous grant from Jewish Federation and Foundation of Greater Toledo.

Our second visit from the Shin Shin delegation was fun for all of our students, as we combined with our friends from Shomer Emunim for some exciting activities. Our teens had the opportunity to hang out with Yoav and Bnaya for a Havdallah service and Tu B'Shevet ice cream seder. They had so much fun that 15 teens continued the evening with them at laser tag. We are looking forward to one more visit from them in the Spring.

Remember a film by Atom Egoyan

With help from a fellow Holocaust survivor (Martin Landau), Zev, a widower (Christopher Plummer) who struggles with memory loss, embarks on a cross-country odyssey to find the former Nazi responsible for the deaths of their family members.

Despite the obvious challenges, Zev sets out on a mission to deliver long-delayed justice with his own trembling hand. What follows is a remarkable cross-continent road-trip with surprising consequences.

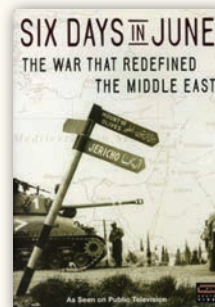

Christopher Plummer plays the main character with the sense of consistent and strong characterization that he has done so well for over forty years. This is definitely one of his more convincing roles, and since the focus is on his character the entire time, he truly had to carry this picture along. He does so with complete conviction and confidence.

What makes the story so interesting and keeps it moving are the separate stops on the journey of the main character. In each place he visits there are additional... continued on next column

This 2015 film is rated "R".

Six Days in June: The War that Redefined the Middle-East

For six days in June 1967, war erupted between Israel and three neighboring countries -- Egypt, Jordan and Syria -- over the West Bank and the Gaza Strip. Forty years after the attack, the land Israel claimed during the Six-Day War is still hotly contested. Using a mix of archival footage, declassified documents and first-hand accounts by the people who saw the battle unfold, filmmaker Ilan Ziv explores a crucial milestone in the Middle East's history. This documentary was shot on location utilizing recently declassified documents, home movie footage, and dozens of interviews with participants (Moshe Dayan, Gamal Abdel Nasser, Lyndon B. Johnson and many others.)

This 2007 film may not be appropriate for younger viewers.

Have you visited the CBI Library Lounge?
