"Reflections on Jewish Art at the Toledo Museum of Art"

The Toledo Museum of Art seeks to tell a global and inclusive art historical narrative, one built around artworks of the highest quality. But where does "Jewish" Art fit into this? Join Adam Levine, TMA Director, for his reflections on how he approaches the acquisition and display of art representing his—and your—faith tradition.

Adam M. Levine is the 10th director of TMA since its distinguished founding in 1901. Levine originally joined TMA in 2012 as an Andrew W. Mellon Fellow and went on to increasingly senior management roles at the museum, ultimately serving as deputy director and curator of ancient art. During his six-year tenure at TMA, Levine curated a diverse range of exhibitions, advanced the Museum's first campus master plan and shared oversight of TMA's $16 million budget and 250 employees.

Refreshments will be served. In-person attendees must be fully vaccinated, and have had a Covid-19 Booster. The Zoom link and passcode will be included in the CBI weekly update email before the program date.

The Real Chamets and Omer

I am writing this article a couple of days before Pesach, in the midst of the frenzied pre-Passover prep those who keep strictly kosher homes must surely endure. Yet, by the time you read this, it will be the lovely month of May accompanied by its Spring seasonal promise. Pesach may by now be but a faded memory; hopefully, it was a good one for you.

As I was perusing through my notes from past years in preparation for Pesach, I was reminded that last year, as you might very well recall, CBI and probably most synagogues around the world were closed to in-person services and programs. The world was recoiling and hiding from a raging Covid epidemic, the horrific kind that none of us have ever experienced previously in our lifetimes, and experts were struggling, racing to find the antidote cures.

All our services and programs were on Zoom and Livestream only, new terminology most of us had never even heard of before, terms which today are as common as the air we breathe. Unfortunately, this shut out many of our congregants from participation in services, programs or Passover sedarim. For those shutouts, I sure hope you'll be able to return in person soon!

Which brings me to the period we are now in – Sefirat Ha'omer – literally The Counting of the Omer, the seven-week/ forty-nine day holy period that connects Pesach to Shavuot, the fiftieth day. As life is returning to "normal," albeit a "new normal," what better way to deal with our emergence from Covid, than to heed the words of the Psalmist, (90:12), "Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom." Covid has changed the way we think and act, but the Torah and the wisdom of our Judaism can and does help to protect and prepare us in times like these.

The Torah indicates that Sefirat Ha'omer has an agricultural basis (Leviticus 23/Deuteronomy 16), and it later took on a historical association with mourning during the times of Rabbi Akiva and Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai. However, I believe that a closer examination of some of the key texts of Sefirat Ha'omer, exposes its deeper, true spiritual meaning.

Before we examine those texts, I would suggest that the same argument may be applied to the frenzied pre-Pesach prep we are in the midst of, as I write this article just three days before onset of the great holiday in order to make our bulletin deadline. We become so immersed in the minutiae of never-ending details of physical cleaning, switching, buying, disposing, selling and schlepping, that we often lose sight of the big picture.

I often ask myself whether Pesach prep was this complicated and onerous for our Biblical ancestors, or for that matter those who lived poor, simple lives in the shtetls of Eastern Europe two hundred years ago. How about in Sephardic communities where at least they suffered no restriction on kitniyot such as rice, corn, legumes etc.

Getting rid of chamets and counting the Omer are more than physical, agricultural, or historical requirements, respectively. Chamets is not only food, and the Omer is not merely an agricultural offering. I believe their intent is a means to a spiritual end. This is one reason that on the first day of Pesach we do a Service of Reaffirmation. It is not enough to reaffirm our Judaism once a year only on the High Holidays as most do.

It is on Pesach that we were set free, to begin the process of becoming a "kingdom of priests and a holy nation." (Exodus 19:6) No surprise some wear white on Pesach like the High Holidays, as I do when I pray for tal/dew on the first day. Some of the traditional melodies of the Haggadah are also reminiscent of High Holiday nusach/chants, such as the introductory Ha Lachma paragraph recited early at the seder, which sets the tone of the whole Haggadah.

Seven weeks after the onset of Pesach, through the connection of Sefirat Ha'omer, we celebrate Torah on the holiday of Shavuot. By preparing daily during these holy weeks, we may become worthy each and every year to receive Torah, through spiritual reaffirmation and renewal. I offer here but two examples in which this concept is so beautifully expressed.

First, during the weeks leading up to Pesach, we already start the numerical count which, incidentally, is particularly prevalent in the seder. (How many 3's and 4's can you count in the seder?) We count four special Shabbatot with special Torah and haftorah readings. The third of these is Parshat Parah, the haftorah of which, from the prophet Ezekiel 36, states (25-26): "I will sprinkle upon you pure waters and you shall be purified...and I shall give you a new heart."

Similarly, the magnificent Ribono Shel Olam prayer which precedes the counting of the Omer, begins, "Master of the Universe, You have commanded us through Moses Your servant to count the Omer, in order to cleanse us from our encrustations and contaminations..."

Let us use the remainder of these seven weeks leading to Shavuot on June 4-6, to contemplate the meaning of our lives, particularly in light of the havoc wrought by the past two years of Covid. How might we improve ourselves - as Jews, as Americans, as humans...

We have provided the chart at the right on page three to assist you "to make each of these days count."

When to Count the Omer: The counting of the omer begins on the second night of Passover. Jews in the Diaspora generally integrate this counting into the second seder. The omer is counted each evening after sundown. The counting of the omer is generally appended to the end of Ma'ariv (the evening service), as well.

What to Say: One stands when counting the omer, and begins by reciting the following blessing: Barukh ata Adonai Eloheinu Melekh ha'Olam asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav v'tizivanu al sefirat ha'omer. 'Blessed are you, Adonai our God, Sovereign of the Universe, who has sanctified us with your commandments and commanded us to count the omer." After the blessing, one recites the appropriate day of the count. For example: Hayom yom echad la'omer. "Today is the first day of the omer." After the first six days, one also includes the number of weeks that one has counted. For example: Hayom sh'losha asar yom, she'hem shavuah echad v'shisha yamim la'omer." "Today is 13 days, which is one week and six days of the omer."

The CBI Purim Dinner & Video Shpiel Mash-Up was Fun and Festive for All Who Attended

Over 70 adults and children attended the CBI Purim Dinner & Video Shpiel Mash-Up on March 16, 2022. After a short Mincha service in the sanctuary, a delicious dinner was served in the Social Hall. Silly glasses were placed at every seat so that everyone could join in the fun. The mood was joyful, as the group enjoyed reuniting with fellow congregants that they had not seen since the pandemic began in 2020.

The congregation returned to the sanctuary for the CBI Video Shpiel Mash-Up and watched musical numbers from 2015's "Sound of Shusan", 2016's "Mid-West Side Story, 2019's "You Can't Stop the Spiel", and 2020's "Fiddler on the Spoof". After the video, costume parade and megillah reading by Cantor Lichterman, DESSERT! Yummy hamantaschen were laid out for everyone to enjoy. The Cantor finished the evening with Maariv and a full reading of the megillah.

Shavuot Tikkun with Rabbi Robert Dobrusin

"The Curious Incident on Mt. Sinai: Moses and the Breaking of the Tablets"

The holiday of Shavuot is known as Z'man Matan Torataynu: the time of the Giving of the Torah. We best honor the anniversary of the revelation at Sinai by engaging in Torah study and celebrating the wisdom and inspiration Torah provides.

This Shavuot evening, we will study one of the most unusual and provocative stories in the entire Torah: the story of Moses and the breaking the Tablets of the Law on Mt. Sinai. We will carefully read the Torah's accounts of this story and then explore both traditional and contemporary commentaries as they explain Moses' action in vastly different ways. What was Moses' thinking and why did he take this drastic step? Was it a spontaneous act or was it carefully considered? Was it justified? And, finally, what can the story and the commentaries teach us about the role of Torah In our lives?

What is Shavuot all about?

Shavuot begins the evening of Saturday, June 4 through Monday, June 6

The holiday of Shavuot celebrates the completion of the seven-week Omer counting period between Passover and Shavuot. The Torah was given by God to the Jewish people on Mount Sinai on Shavuot more than 3,300 years ago. Every year on the holiday of Shavuot we renew our acceptance of God's gift, and God "re-gives" us the Torah. In ancient times, two wheat loaves would be offered in the Holy Temple on Shavuot. It was also at this time that people would begin to bring "bikkurim", their first and choicest fruits, to thank God for Israel's bounty.

Why do we eat dairy on Shavuot? There are differences of opinion (some quite charming) as to why it is a custom.

Some derive the practice directly from Torah, saying we eat dairy to symbolize the "land flowing with milk and honey" (Exodus 3:8) promised to the Israelites, or that "milk and honey are under your tongue" (Song of Songs 4:11). These passages, along with "The precepts of the Lord are... sweeter than honey" (Psalm 19:9-11) also indicate we should eat honey, which is customary in some communities.

The initials of the four Hebrew words in Numbers 28:26, which describe the sacrificial meal offering on Shavuot, spell מחלב - 'mei-halav' (from milk), suggesting that dairy food is the acceptable meal for the festival. At Sinai, the Israelites were considered to be as innocent as newborns, whose food is milk.

Those of kabbalistic [mystical] bent equate the numerical value of the word "halav", 40 ('het'=8, 'lamed'=30, 'vet'=2), with the number of days Moses spent on Mount Sinai receiving the Ten Commandments and other teachings (Exodus 24:18). Others look to the mountain itself, which is termed in Psalms "mount of gavnunim" (68:15), meaning many peaks. They connect that description with the Hebrew word "gevinah", meaning cheese.

Scholars who trace all Jewish customs and rituals to practices common among various ethnic groups claim that spring harvest festivals characteristically featured dairy dishes, perhaps because cheese was produced during that season.

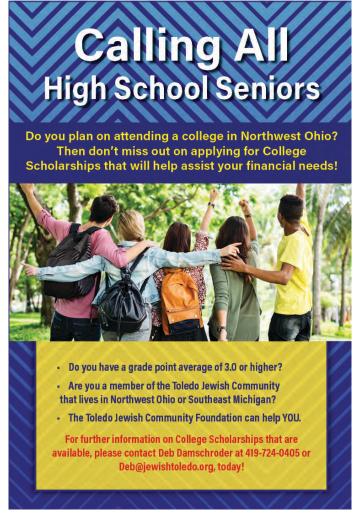

There is also support for the custom based on the spiritual development among the Israelites in the wake of Sinai. After the Torah was given, they were obligated to follow its laws, including those governing dietary practice. As they returned to the camp from Revelation, they could not eat the previously prepared meat, which had not been done according to the laws of kashrut [dietary restrictions]. Since preparing fresh meat would take too long for the tired, hungry Israelites, they took the dairy food that was readily available. Symbolizing modesty, dairy was also seen as appropriate for the occasion of receiving the Torah, which should always be approached with humility.

David S. Stone Religious School Model Seder on April 10, 2022

Notes from our Principal

Kim Brody, Principal, David S. Stone Religious School

Another successful school year is complete. The Religious School Closing Shabbat on April 30th was a great time for all of us to be together celebrating Shabbat and the end of our academic year.

We had a lot going on despite the remote start to the year. Our students and faculty came together to make this a success. We had numerous Zoom classes with our friends from Shomer Emunim and Major Yoni Alon in Israel.

David S. Stone Model Seder on April 10th was enjoyed by all who were in attendance. Cantor Lichterman led a festive interactive program to prepare us for a wonderful Pesach. We would like to thank Fagie Benstein and Rochelle Black for preparing all of the delicious food for the seder.

On Sunday, May 1st, Mr. Silverman's and Cantor Lichterman's classes are going to Beth Shalom cemetery for a geniza project, (the burial of old religious books and objects) as well as to help Cathy Sperling with an archival project. The students will be taking photos of headstones so that the photos and Yahrtzeit dates will be available to the families of those buried at the cemetery as well as for the Toledo community.

We are looking forward to the twice postponed Israel trip this June for our teens to experience the trip of a lifetime. The tour of Israel will be chaperoned by Cantor Lichterman and Hope Davis. Andy Davis, Adam Davis, Aidan Mahoney, Daniel Mahoney, Maya Markham, Haley Smith, Aaron Smith, and Caleb Smith finally get to go on their long awaited trip. A major portion of the financing for this trip is made possible by the Kripke and Steinberg family funds and the Greater Toledo Jewish Community Foundation.

Please feel free to think of these kids if you need any more Hire a Mensch projects before June, to help them raise funds for their trip. If you are in need of help, contact KBrody@cbitoledo.org

Have a safe and healthy summer!

CBI Guidelines for In Person Attendance

MASK WEARING AT IN-PERSON CBI SERVICES AND PROGRAMS FOR FULLY VACCINATED AND BOOSTERED ATTENDEES IS OPTIONAL

- CBI Members and guests that have been FULLY vaccinated and BOOSTERED are welcome to attend in person services.
- MEMBERS AGES 16+: The first time you attend in person services, you MUST present your Covid 19 vaccination card showing that you are fully vaccinated and boostered.
  - Please do not ask the Usher to "take your word for it". If you forget your card, please leave the building and come back with your card. No exceptions.
- GUESTS: Only guests that have been FULLY vaccinated and BOOSTERED are welcome to attend in person services at CBI.
  - The CBI office MUST be notified BEFORE the guest attends so that we have a list for the Usher and Officer on duty.
  - Guests MUST show their Covid 19 vaccination card each time they attend CBI services. If they forget their card, they will be asked to leave the building and come back with their card.
- · CHILDREN AGES 5+ must be fully vaccinated.
- If you are a CBI member, and have not yet attended services, and are fully vaccinated and boostered, you can take a photo of your Covid 19 vaccination card and email it to Rhoda Miller, rmiller@cbitoledo.org at the CBI office. We will mark your name in our roster as "fully vaccinated".
- For your safety, when you arrive at the synagogue, we ask that you do not loiter in the lobby area in front of the Sanctuary doors. If the Ark is open, the congregation is standing for a prayer, or the Cantor is speaking or chanting from the Torah, please enter through the Social Hall doors and when appropriate, take your seat. When you enter the Social Hall, be sure to stand at least 5 feet away from the doors.

If the above guidelines preclude you from attending in-person services at CBI, you can instead watch the CBI live stream or Zoom services from your home (see instruction on the column at the right). See the calendar on page 15 for service formats.

The CBI Board will continuously review these safety precautions and make adjustments based on CDC guidelines.

How to access CBI Live Stream Services

On your Computer, Tablet or Cell Phone:

Go to the CBI website, cbitoledo.org. At the top of the home page click on the "Live Stream" tab. When the page opens, you will be connected to the live stream service.

On your Television:

You can also access the live stream services through your television if you have a "smart" TV, Roku or streaming stick which gives you access to YouTube. Click on the YouTube icon on your TV. When YouTube opens, search for "Congregation B'nai Israel - Sylvania, Ohio". Be sure to click on the listing that has the photo with Jewish star (see photo above). We recommend that you "subscribe" to the channel so you can easily locate the live stream for future services. We also highly recommend connecting to the live stream services on your TV as it is the most immersive and closest experience, short of being in the synagogue.

Lag B'Omer begins the evening of May 18 - May 19

Lag B'Omer is a minor holiday that occurs on the 33rd day of the Omer, the 49-day period between Passover and Shavuot. A break from the semi-mourning of the Omer, key aspects of Lag B'Omer include holding Jewish weddings (it's the one day during the Omer when Jewish law permits them), lighting bonfires and getting haircuts.

CBI Library Books to Read or Re-read

Four years ago this month, my husband and I were lucky enough to be in Israel to observe Yom Ha'zikaron and Yom Ha'azmaut. What an amazing experience to pay our respects to Steve's great uncle who was killed in the bombing of the King David Hotel in 1946 and is buried in the Mt. of Olives Cemetery. We celebrated that evening with hundreds dancing in the streets of Jerusalem. It is with that memory in mind that I'd like to draw your attention to a few of the books in our library's Israel collection. ~ C. Sperling

Please contact Cathy Sperling if you are interested in these or any of the books in the CBI Library.

Homeland: The Illustrated History of the State of Israel by Marv Wolfman, Mario Ruiz, and William J. Rubin (2007)

"This National Jewish Book Award winner depicts the history of Israel from biblical Abraham to the present, this sophisticated, full-color graphic adaptation is academically grounded, guiding readers through highlights both in historical detail and from Israel's world view. History, religion, politics, and recent Middle East situations are all given comprehensive coverage. With painted art that jumps right off the page, this is an absorbing way to absorb, understand, and retain key information about 4,000 years of complicated history."

Walking Israel: A Personal Search for the Soul of a Nation by Martin Fletcher, (2010)

With its dense history of endless conflict and biblical events, Israel's coastline is by far the most interesting hundred miles in the world. As longtime chief of NBC's Tel Aviv news bureau, Martin Fletcher is in a unique position to interpret Israel, and he brings it off in a spectacular and novel manner. In 2009, he strolled along the entire coast, from Lebanon to Gaza, observing facets of the country that are ignored in news reports, yet tell a different and truer story. Walking Israel is packed with hilarious moments, historical insights, emotional, true-life tales, and, above all, great storytelling.

Front Page Israel: Modern Israel's extraordinary history as captured on the front pages of the Jerusalem Post (2011).

News in Israel is history updated. As the most diligent reporter of news and developments in Jerusalem, since its founding in 1932, The Post has provided a continuous record of Israeli, Jewish and international history. Front Page Israel is a story of idealism and hope, blood and trial, where each front page plucks the day's events from the flow of time, holding it for momentary view in a fleeting present.

Have you visited the new CBI Library Lounge?

The Library committee has created a lounge in the former children's playroom. We hope you will come in, sit, relax, and peruse some of our newest literary acquisitions during the hours that the synagogue is open. You are welcome to borrow any of these books, as long as you sign them out in our provided card box. For security purposes, please contact the office (419.517.8400) before you arrive.
