All I Got Was Words

This article is based on a drash/sermon I delivered on the first Shabbat after returning from my mother's funeral in South Africa, Parshat Va'et'chanan, August 13, 2022. It was Shabbat Nachamu – The Sabbath of Consolation, the first of seven such Shabbatot Di'nechemta from Tisha B'av till the High Holidays.

In Judaism we link our personal loss with our national destiny. For example, as a mourner I received the traditional words of comfort which include "...b'toch sh'ar aveilei tsiyon Viy'rushalayim", meaning I should find comfort "...amongst the other mourners in Zion and Jerusalem". At the height of our joy - a Jewish wedding - we break a glass to recall the destruction of the two Temples and Jerusalem. How appropriate that the haftarah I chanted today begins, "Nachamu nachamu ami... – Comfort ye, comfort ye My People..." (Isaiah 40). I vividly recall singing these words from a Handel oratorio, as a student at the University of Cape Town College of Music. I am comforted having returned home, comforted by family, and by returning to you, my congregation and extended family.

I was planning a 'shloshim' ceremony at the conclusion of the 30-day period of mourning, but I am too emotionally overwhelmed from recent events to host another service, as appropriate as it would be. Rather, I have chosen to share the funeral recording with you, and spoken and shared articles which I trust will inform you about my dear mother Miriam's life, A"H.

Although I was away for three weeks, by the time you deduct four days travel and the intense week of shiva, we were left with ONE mere week to clear out Mom's entire apartment, a lifetime's accumulation of 100 years! We faced the intensely emotional dilemma of having to decide to discard almost everything, save for a few prized "possessions", and agonize over what to keep, store, trash, donate, sell, or bring back 10,000 miles to the USA. We have no close family in Cape Town where we might have stored items. Mom's apartment is on the fourth floor of a small building. Each day, huge piles of bags overflowing with shredded papers and tossed items accumulated, which the poor custodian had to cart off and dispose of daily.

Last week, we entered the Book of Devarim/Deuteronomy, the fifth Book of the Torah in our yearly reading cycle. The Greek Septuagint name Deuteronomy is a misnomer. Although it means 'second book' based on some repetition from the second Book of the Torah, Exodus, the literal translation of Devarim is 'words,' as in the opening line "Eileh hadevarim asher diber Moshe... - These are the words that Moses spoke..."

Similarly, the central theme of today's Torah reading is Aseret Hadibrot, translated as the Ten Commandments. That too is a misnomer. Dibrot in Hebrew, from the same root as 'davar,' meaning 'word,' means 'statements,' NOT 'commandments!'

There is a related midrash about the opening words of the Torah, "Bereishit bara Elokim et hashamayim... - In the beginning the Lord created the heaven..." You will notice the Hebrew word 'et' has no English translation. In Hebrew 'et' denotes an action; it follows the verb and connects to the object of said action. According to this midrash, 'et' means 'alphabet' since it comprises the first and last letters "aleph" and "tav" of the Hebrew alphabet. In other words, "In the beginning the Lord created the alphabet..." so that God could communicate with us by word and we could write these words down. No surprise then that we Jews have historically been amongst the most literate and educated People.

Now back to our original dilemma - what were we going to keep, to bring back with us from Mom? It pained us to dispose of her 'treasures' like her beautiful Pesach dinnerware etc. However, these are just things, stuff! As a Cantor's wife Mom had little wealth or riches. Her wealth, her possessions, her riches, her inheritance, her legacy, these were her words, words, words, words she wrote and spoke, in the spirit of the opening line of the Torah Devarim, "Eileh hadevarim - These are the words..."

I filled an entire suitcase of Mom's writings to bring back with me, usually in her own handwriting (she had no computer), hundreds of speeches, articles, letters, cards, one from London in 1947 from our late father who passed 36 years ago, A"H, written in Polish I will have to get translated. Like our father's legacy, his cantorial music which was words expressed in the most beautiful way possible. The Prophet Hosea, in the haftarah of Parshat Vayeytsey states (14:3): "Kechu imachem devarim...uneshalma farim sefateinu – Take with you words...and rather than sacrifices, offerings from the lips!"

I had hoped to see Mom one more time and had booked to go, following my recent Confirmation Israel trip and a visit to Los Angeles for our granddaughter Sienna's 1st birthday. Having not made it in time, my brother who was there recently, said I was better off not seeing Mom in her declining state. Rather, my final image of her on my mind's eye is from last November, in the midst of Covid, when she was honored on her 99th birthday in a beautiful ceremony (which some of you watched on Zoom) for her contributions to the Cape Town Jewish community. Mom rallied and was All

Tashlich

Sunday, October 2, 2022
at the JCC Lake at 10:00 AM

On Rosh Hashanah it is tradition to go to a river or spring (preferably one that has fish in it) and recite special penitential prayers. Tossing bread crumbs in the water is symbolic of casting away our sins and starting a new year with a clean slate.

Bring your own bread and meet us at the lake behind the campus.

Kever Avot

Sunday, October 2, 2022
11:00 AM at Beth Shalom Cemetery
Meet outside unless it is raining

Kever Avot, the tradition of visiting the graves of our parents and loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, can evoke a wealth of emotions and memories.

After Tashlich, we will meet at Beth Shalom Cemetery (420 Otter Creek Road, Oregon, Ohio) where Hazzan Lichterman will assist those wanting special memorial prayers recited at the graves of their loved ones. If there is inclement weather, we will meet in the Chapel followed by Hazzan Lichterman visiting individual graves at the cemetery.

members of all local congregations*

We hope that you will attend this meaningful and fun Sukkot dinner outside in the CBI Sukkah, decorated by our Religious School children. As we enjoy our delicious pasta meal, Cantor Lichterman will discuss the "Ushpizin", otherwise known as the supernatural guests that visit during this festival holiday.

The celebration continues as we move inside to the sanctuary where we will sing festive songs, dance with the Torah, drink a l'chaim, wave our flags, show off our craziest hats, and unroll the entire Torah scroll. Our Religious School students will also be invited to participate in hakafot.

We will also enjoy a delicious ice cream bar.

Todah Rabah

- Anne & Jeff Bauer and Ann & Howard Rosenberg for spearheading the Cantor's Anniversary Celebration Weekend. Their tireless efforts in coordinating the Friday evening program, Shabbat morning speakers, the Shabbat Kiddush, and gorgeous Torah mantles in honor of the Cantor's years of service to CBI, made the entire weekend a joyful simcha enjoyed by our entire congregation.
- The Women of CBI for coordinating and donating three beautiful High Holiday Torah mantles. The new Torah mantles were the feature of the special ceremony at the Selichot service on September 17, 2022.

Increase to Toledo Jewish Community Cemetery Association Burial Fees on January 1, 2023

As of January 1, 2023 the prices for Interment and Perpetual Care will increase from $2575 to $2800 for a single plot and from $5150 to $5600 for a double plot. This fee does not include a tallit (if needed) for the burial of a male. It also does not include funeral costs or the customary gratuity paid to the clergy for their services.

The above fees apply to members in good standing at CBI who have paid in a minimum of $5000 in dues since joining the synagogue. Those who have not attained this standard will be required to do so in order to qualify for a plot.

If a double stone is planned, the full burial charges for the second plot must be paid before the monument is placed.

CBI will continue to collect the funds and remit to the Cemetery Association on behalf of the congregant or family.

PLEASE NOTE: All prepayments in full of interment and perpetual care fees will be honored.

For more information, contact the office at 419.517.8400.

Women of CBI celebrated Rosh Chodesh Elul on August 24th

Over 30 women gathered at dinner for an evening of inspiration, friendship, and fun, to prepare to welcome the New Year. Everyone received a blank journal and was encouraged to write a daily reflection in it during the upcoming year. The attendees also participated in a honey tasting led by Joanne Anagnostou of Dee's Bees. Nancy Goldberg created carved apple swans as table decorations.

WOMEN OF CBI BOOK CLUB

This Is How it Always Is

by Laurie Frankel

Tuesday, October 25, 2022
10:30 AM In-Person at CBI

Debbie Perlmutter will lead the discussion. It is not necessary to have read the book to join the discussion.

When Rosie and Penn and their four boys welcome the newest member of their family, no one is surprised it's another baby boy. At least their large, loving, chaotic family knows what to expect. But Claude is not like his brothers. One day he puts on a dress and refuses to take it off. He wants to bring a purse to kindergarten. He wants hair long enough to sit on. When he grows up, Claude says, he wants to be a girl. Rosie and Penn aren't panicked at first. Kids go through phases, after all, and make-believe is fun. But soon the entire family is keeping Claude's secret. Until one day it explodes.

Laurie Frankel's This Is How It Always Is is a novel about revelations, transformations, fairy tales, and family. And it's about the ways this is how it always is: Change is always hard and miraculous and hard again; parenting is always a leap into the unknown with crossed fingers and full hearts; children grow but not always according to plan. And families with secrets don't get to keep them forever.

THIS PROGRAM IS OPEN TO THE WOMEN OF ALL LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

WCBI Tikkun Olam project benefits the CBI kitchens

Tikkun Olam has become an integral part of the Rosh Chodesh programs. For Rosh Chodesh Elul, the women generously contributed monetary donations to help restock the CBI kitchens with needed equipment. From measuring cups to spoons, bowls, potholders, pie plates and much more, their donations provided a much appreciated addition to the kitchens.

Notes from our Principal

We have many engaging programs coming up in October for our students.

Join us for Tashlich on Sunday, October 2nd. Class will begin at 9:30 and we will walk to the JCC Lake at 10:00 for a short service. Tashlich with our congregation will cast away our sins from the previous year by tossing bread into the water. By doing this we will have a fresh start to our new year. Please bring your own bread.

After Tashlich, Grades 6 and above will then go with their families to Beth Shalom cemetery for the Kever Avot service led by Cantor Lichterman to honor those who have passed away.

Please mark your calendars for October 16th. There will be no morning class that morning due to the evening Sukkot/Simchat Torah dinner and celebration in the evening. We will see everyone at the dinner from 5:00-6:30. Dinner is free for all Religious School families. The evening will include a festive dinner in our new sukkah followed by Hakofot and dessert. We are looking forward to seeing ALL of our families for this fun filled event.

The Toledo Jewish Community is planning an educational program this year through the Jewish Agency for Israel. We are hosting shinshinim (Israeli emissaries) that live and work in various communities. We will be welcoming our Israeli guest from Cleveland for three weekends throughout the school year. This is an incredible opportunity for our community. The shinshinim will also partake in Shabbat services during each weekend they are in Toledo. We will combine with students from Shomer Emunim for these special Sunday mornings. The dates of the visits will be communicated as soon as they are finalized.

In other news, we are excited to share that on September, 18th, five CBI USYers met up with over 60 teens from Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Detroit for an incredible day at Cedar Point. They had the opportunity to meet other Jewish teens in our USY region. This was a great kick-off to the year for our synagogue youth. We will share photos in the November bulletin.

resplendent in all her glory, even concluding the celebration with an unscheduled, impromptu speech during which she was 100% lucid and coherent.

In today's Torah portion Moses asked two final wishes of God before he died. God granted one. If Moses, the greatest Jew who ever lived, did not get all his prayers answered, what chutzpah do I have to expect my prayers to be answered? We know life does not work that way.

Mom said after that ceremony that she was ready for Hashem to take her, and her wish was granted. But she went on her own terms, passing peacefully, surrounded by familiar faces, while refusing the doctor's recommendation she be admitted to the hospital. Both Mom and Dad passed during the three weeks of mourning in our Jewish calendar that connect the fasts of the 17th of Tammuz and Tisha B'av, that day of national Jewish tragedy, a period we call Ben Hametsarim – Between the Straights. Despite all Mom endured in her long life, including the Warsaw Ghetto and four Concentration Camps, she harbored no resentments and believed deeply in the words of Hosea from the same haftorah previously quoted (14:10), "...ki yesharim darchei Hashem v'tsadikim yelchu vam... – the ways of God are true and the righteous will follow them..."

I wish to share a wonderful Yiddish poem, the origins of which I know not, nor where I found it. It is called, ALL I GOT WAS WORDS

*When I was young and fancy free
 My folks had no fine clothes for me. All I got was words:
 Gott tsu danken (Thank God)
 Got vet geben (God will provide)
 Zol men nor leben un gezunt zein. (May we only live and be healthy)*

*When I was wont to travel far
 They couldn't provide me with a car. All I got was words:
 Gey gezunt (Go in good health)
 Gey pamelech (Go carefully)
 Hob a glickliche reize. (Have a wonderful trip)*

*I wanted to increase my knowledge
 But they couldn't afford to send me to college. All I got was words:
 Hob seichel (Have good sense)
 Zei nisht kein nar (Don't be foolish)
 Toirah iz de beste s'choireh. (Torah is the best merchandise)*

*The years have flown, the world has turned Things I've forgotten, things I've learned
 Yet I still remember:
 Zog dem memes (Tell the truth)
 Gib tsedokoh (Give charity)
 Hob rachmonus (Have compassion)
 Zei a mentsch. (Be a mentsch)*

I am comforted today by your presence, comforted that today (August 13th) is my wife's milestone birthday, and by the great news I have permission to share – that our daughter Jackie and husband Alex are expecting! God giveth, and God taketh away!

Mom was a tsadeket - a righteous person, a true eishet chayil – a woman of valor. I am proud to be her son. Y'hay zichra baruch. May her memory be a blessing!

The Trial of FDR

Commemoration of the 84th Anniversary of Kristallnacht

The Trial of FDR, by Robert M. Krakow, is a live docudrama presentation about the the voyage of the SS St. Louis, when 937 Jewish refugees fleeing Nazi Germany were turned away by the US.

The Trial of FDR is a live docudrama stage play dramatizing the controversy surrounding the voyage of the SS St. Louis, a ship carrying 937 Jewish refugees fleeing Nazi Germany motivated by the ever-increasing Nazi campaign against the Jews culminating in the events of Kristallnacht. The ship was turned away first by Cuba and then by the U.S., thus forced to return to Europe where ultimately over 200 of its passengers perished in the Holocaust. This play considers the terrible impact of the decision to deny asylum to these desperate refugees. It is written and directed by Robert M. Krakow, an attorney, playwright, and documentarian.

Kristallnacht – the Night of Broken Glass – commemorates when Nazis rampaged throughout Germany destroying synagogues, murdering over 100 innocent people, vandalizing Jewish businesses, and seizing 30,000 Jewish men who were taken to concentration camps, with little or no response from the world, demonstrating to Hitler that he was free to proceed with his nefarious plans against the Jewish people. The Roosevelt Administration's handling of the Holocaust Jewish refugee issue has been a hotly debated topic for decades. No single event has had more influence on this debate than the ill-fated Voyage of the SS St. Louis. This unique docudrama puts President Roosevelt on trial for the decision to refuse US entry to the asylum-seeking passengers.

CBI Guidelines for In-Person Attendance

ALL congregants are welcomed back to in-person services regardless of vaccine status.

Mask-wearing at in-person CBI services and programs for fully vaccinated and boosted attendees is OPTIONAL.

Un-vaccinated attendees are STRONGLY ENCOURAGED to wear a mask while in the building.

COVID-related attendance policies will continue to remain fluid and be adjusted as determined by the CBI Board and COVID environmental factors.

We realize that COVID will be a long-term issue so we feel that we should no longer exclude any of our fellow congregants.

The CBI board will adjust masking, distancing and other policies as needed to best protect everyone.

Thank you for your understanding in this challenging time.

How to access CBI Live Stream Services

On your Computer, Tablet or Cell Phone:

- Go to the CBI website, cbitoledo.org.
- At the top of the home page click on the "Live Stream" tab.
- When the page opens, you will be connected to the CBI live stream service.

On your Television:

You can also access the live stream services through your television if you have a "smart" TV, Roku or streaming stick which gives you access to YouTube.

- Click on the YouTube icon on your TV.
- When YouTube opens, search for "Congregation B'nai Israel - Sylvania, Ohio".
- Be sure to click on the listing that has the photo with Jewish star (see photo above).
- We recommend that you "subscribe" to the channel so you can easily locate the live stream for future services.
- We also highly recommend connecting to the live stream services on your TV as it is the most immersive and closest experience, short of being in the synagogue.

CBI Library Books to Read or Re-read

Our CBI Library has recently received several new books which can be found on our library lounge "new selections" shelves. Please come and take a look. If interested, contact Cathy Sperling at (419) 841-1927 to assist you in checking them out.

Tales of the Havurah by David Kronfeld

Tales of the Havurah is a mixture of interrelated stories both funny and serious set in a big old rambling house that serves as home to Havurat Chaim, a fictional alternative community that is also the heart of local Jewish counter-culture of post-1960's Boston.

Narrated by a talkative, sometimes pot-smoking host named Solomon, who is endowed with an unorthodox, ironic, and yet poetic religious bent, the stories introduce the reader to a little universe of educated but not-always-reverent young adults experimenting in creating a new style of close-knit Jewish community while also seeking to forge a meaningful, contemporary spiritual life.

The book captures a particular moment in America, when a rebellious youth culture intersected with traditional Jewish practice, symbols and values, and ultimately brought profound changes to American Jewish society at large.

Have you visited the CBI Library Lounge?

You are welcome to borrow any of these books, as long as you sign them out in our provided card box. For security purposes, please contact the office (419.517.8400) before you arrive.

National Jewish Book Awards Winner 2021 The House of Fragile Things: Jewish Art Collectors and the Fall of France* by James McAuley

This well-researched book, The House of Fragile Things, revolves around the themes of entanglements and attachments. Author James McAuley focuses on four Jewish families who belonged to the French grand bourgeoisie. In the dramatic years between 1870 and the end of the Second World War, a number of prominent French Jewish families, pillars of an embattled community, invested their fortunes in Frances's cultural artefacts, sacrificed their sons to the country's army, and were ultimately rewarded by seeing their collections plundered and their families deported to Nazi concentration camps.

The Camondos, the Cahens d'Anvers, the Reinachs, and the Rothschilds all felt a deep attachment to the Third Republic; its ideal of civic equality, transcending differences of religion and race, inspired feelings of intense and unwavering loyalty. Until the military defeat in 1940, the patriotism of these privileged citizens seemed to be reciprocated. They were blessed with unimpeded opportunities to acquire and transfer wealth, and they could adopt with almost no ridicule the habits and practices of the nation's most venerable Catholic grandees.

The members of the Jewish upper caste could surround themselves with elegant furnishings and could devote themselves to the collection of works of art. None other than Renoir could be hired as a portraitist. Unfortunately, such attachments proved to be lethal.
