Kaddish with a Minyan

At first glance, you may be wondering what the above title has to do with the High Holy Days? It is, after all September – Tishrei, and you might expect a High Holy Days message. Read on.

Recently I had Yahrzeit for my dear father (Cantor) Jakub Lichterman, of blessed memory. Yahrzeit began on Sunday evening when CBI does not currently provide a service, neither in person, nor Zoom. I sent out a special request for a Zoom minyan, not wanting to 'impose' on anyone at 5:45 PM on a sunny Sunday evening.

Thanks to you there was a minyan, and a large one. I was able to fulfil my religious obligation of Kaddish with a minyan, and spared the experience of Zooming elsewhere, there being no other local minyan. Reciting Kaddish with our own daily minyan was reassuring and comforting! We constitute an intimate family, and this experience can be profound.

One of our regular minyanaires, Joe Wittenberg, who is reciting Kaddish for 11 months for his dear son David, of blessed memory, shared an excellent article with me from the Wall Street Journal of July 1st, 2023, about the Pittsburgh synagogue murderer's trial. In the article, entitled 'By Killing 11 Jews, He Killed Something Else, Too', the writer Mark Oppenheimer stated: "The murder of any human being is infinitely terrible, but the murder of a Jew in synagogue has a special quality: It makes the tiny minority of Jews who show up for one another at worship — the minyan - even smaller. That loss has unique ramifications, which may not be apparent to the nonobservant." The context of this statement was the testimony of Stephen Weiss, the ritual director of Tree of Life Synagogue, and one of the attack survivors, during the trial. Mr. Weiss lamented that they no longer have a minyan, since the 11 murdered victims were regular attendees. The article motivated me to write this article for our High Holy Days bulletin, and I thank Joe for sharing it.

Besides yahrzeit for my father, I also recently completed a year of Kaddish for my dear mother Miriam, of blessed memory. My brother and I made sure we recited Kaddish every day for 11 months, as required. 99% of the time, we were able to fulfill this mitzvah, usually three times a day - Maariv, Shachrit and Mincha, evening, morning and afternoon. In worst-case scenarios, such as when we were simultaneously travelling, we tried to at least say Kaddish once if not three times on those days.

I was able to fulfil this great mitzvah because of you, our minyan! At first, when I returned from Mom's funeral in South Africa, on a couple occasions when there was no minyan at CBI three times per day, I Zoomed into other congregations' services. That experience left me so cold, unmoved and detached, that I determined from then on that I would only say Kaddish at CBI, unless I was out of town.

Those who have never attended our daily minyan, are missing out on a potentially profound, moving spiritual experience. Just ask attendees. Some come out of obligation, others to help fellow Jews fulfill the obligation they take seriously. Still others because it is meaningful, and, dare I say, enjoyable. Others have told me they enjoy the camaraderie and going afterwards to Panera for coffee and schmooze (Butch we miss your quizzes and anxiously await your return).

Each time I recited Kaddish, it focused my thoughts on my mother as well as on the other memorialized loved ones, frequently names that someone present recognized. At CBI, the tradition is to daily recall Yahrzeits going back as far as our records go. There, during minyan, I pictured my dear mother, smiling down at me, at us, from a distance, thanking us... Our tradition teaches that the regular recitation of Kaddish for 11 months helps facilitate the heavenly ascent of our loved one's neshama/soul. For me, that is powerful reassurance that Mom has found her dearly earned place in olam haba — the World to Come, alongside all our loved ones who have gone 'the way of the world'.

With Kaddish recited three times per day, services often including more than one Mourners' Kaddish, we are reminded, even "forced" to contemplate their memory, often multiple times per day. We do not have to cease our daily, mundane routines to focus on them, nor do we have to go out of our way to remember them. In all, I have contemplated Mom hundreds of times this past year. That is thanks in great part to you — our minyan!

While many Jews confine their synagogue attendance to the High Holy Days, particularly Yizkor on Yom Kippur, I urge you these High Holy Days to consider attending an occasional daily minyan. It is truly the lifeblood of our shul. It is there for your daily year-round consumption and benefit. Despite the toll that Covid and Toledo's declining Jewish numbers have taken on synagogue attendance everywhere, we at CBI are indeed fortunate to be the only local synagogue that provides daily minyanim all year round, often three

September 2023

In this month's message, I would like to provide an update on repairs and improvements to our facilities:

Sprinkler System Overhaul: The brown grass and wilting trees of early summer made it clear that our irrigation system was not functioning properly. The well has been acid cleaned to remove scale and debris that had reduced water flow. The sprinkler system was restored with the adjustment, replacement, or relocation of 25 heads. The grass and plantings have responded well, and our grounds look much better than they did in early July.

Garbage Disposal Replacement: The sink disposal in the meat kitchen that has been malfunctioning for years has finally been replaced with a new unit.

Conference Room Technology Update: Replacement of the video and sound systems in the conference/classroom was completed in mid-August.

Sanctuary Sound System: Thanks to a generous donation from Randy and Lauri Katz the sound system in the sanctuary has been completely renovated.

JCC/YMCA Renovation: Lastly, the latest update from the JCC/YMCA is that construction of the new wing will not begin until next spring at the earliest but that once built, the new access road on the east side of our building will be permanent.

As our first full post-COVID year draws to a close, I would like to thank the board members and volunteers who worked so hard to restore a full schedule of programming. While a full list of people and events wouldn't fit in this space – and I would be sure to get something wrong - the efforts of Fran Weinblatt, Cathy Sperling and Paul Causman deserve special recognition. Game Night, the Cantor's 12th Anniversary Event, and the Kabbalat Shabbat Barbeque were among the best-attended events we have had in years.

It is not possible to close this note without tossing in my own thoughts about the High Holidays. In the Unetanah Tokef prayer we state that as the book of life is inscribed, T'fillah, T'shuvah and Tzedaka - prayer, repentance, and charity - will lessen the severity of the heavenly decree. Judaism holds that actions speak louder than words ... or thoughts. T'fillah can also translate to contemplation, thinking or even executing judgement. T'shuva also means reconciliation — making things right with those we have wronged. And Tzedaka can mean doing the right thing in general. These are of a single piece: make yourself right with God, make yourself right with the people you touch, and make yourself right with the entire world. This isn't a one-week project. It is a way of life.

Finally, I wish all the CBI family a happy and healthy new year.

L'Shanah Tovah!

Mike Tamor, CBI President

times a day, and within a radius of many miles! Many synagogues larger than ours do not provide this service, nor do its congregants enjoy this privilege.

Daily minyan is due to the devotion of a small core who attend daily, whether in person or Zoom. I can recall few occasions during the past few years when we lacked a minyan. Since I cannot be there for every service, volunteers assist in leading. They include Miriam Beckerman, David Friedes, Jack Katz, Howard and Linda Moskowitz, Butch Stein, and David Weinberg amongst others. They perform their official roles, filling the void left by Howard Rosenbaum's 'retirement' after decades of devoted service. They are joined by other daily attendees, who, despite no official role, come for various reasons. I pray that all our minyanaires will receive the s'char mitzvah/ the reward assured for the performance of so great a mitzvah - the facilitation of daily services and Kaddish year round for those who require and desire it.

So, during these High Holy Days, when you make your new year's resolutions, why not commit to attend an occasional daily minyan, preferably in person, but also available on Zoom.

I wish our entire CBI family l'shana tova tikateivu v'techateimu—may you be inscribed and sealed in the Book of Life for a wonderful new year!

Long live the CBI minyan, may it grow and prosper, and yasher koach to all its supporters!

Hazzan Ivor Lichterman

Kever Avot

Sunday, September 10, 2023 11:00 AM at Beth Shalom Cemetery

Kever Avot, the tradition of visiting the graves of our parents and loved ones between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, can evoke a wealth of emotions and memories.

We will meet at Beth Shalom Cemetery (420 Otter Creek Road, Oregon, Ohio) where Hazzan Lichterman will assist those wanting special memorial prayers recited at the graves of their loved ones. If there is inclement weather, we will meet in the Chapel followed by Hazzan Lichterman visiting individual graves at the cemetery.

Tashlich

Rosh Hashanah - Day 1 Saturday, September 16, 2023 at the JCC Lake at 5:15 PM

On or before Rosh Hashanah it is tradition to go to a river or spring (preferably one that has fish in it) and recite special penitential prayers. Tossing bread crumbs in the water is symbolic of casting away our sins and starting a new year with a clean slate.

Bring your own bread and meet us at the lake behind the campus.

TORAH PORTION OF THE WEEK

Join us each Friday morning to discuss and learn the weekly Torah portion with Miriam Beckerman

Friday Mornings at 10:00 - 11:00 AM In-Person at CBI September 1, 8, 22, 29, 2023

September 1: Parashat Ki Tavo

Moses instructs the Israelites regarding the first fruit offering; Moses then lists the blessings for keeping the commandments and the punishments for disobeying them.

September 8: Parashat Nitzavim-Vayelech

Moses describes the Covenant between God and the Israelites, urging the Israelites to uphold the Covenant and honor the Torah so that they may be rewarded with life in the Land of Israel. Moses concludes his speech to the Israelites, blesses Joshua, and instructs the community to gather every seven years to read publicly from the Torah. God predicts the eventual straying of the Israelites.

September 22: Parashat Ha'azinu

Moses recites a song to the Children of Israel that testifies to their covenant with God.

September 29: Sukkot Reading

In the Torah reading for the first day of Sukkot, God details laws of Shabbat and the biblical holidays: Passover, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Sukkot. God also gives instruction about the bringing of the omer offering and the counting of days in the Omer period.

CBI Members Recognized at Federation Annual Meeting

On Tuesday evening, August 8, 2023 the Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo held their Annual Meeting at CBI. Three CBI members were recognized with special awards.

On behalf of all CBI members, we wish a hearty Mazal Tov to the award recipients!

CHRISTINA KATZ

Christina received the National Young Leadership - Harry Levison Award.

Created in 1962, the Harry Levison Young Leadership award rewards exceptional service from young adults of outstanding promise and leadership ability who exhibit an active interest in Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo and the community Annual Campaign.

ANN ROSENBERG

Ann received the Marjorie Siegel Jewish Communal Service Award of Excellence

Established to recognize an outstanding Jewish communal employee or volunteer for their leadership in promoting Jewish values and improving Jewish life, the award acknowledges valuable contributions of the recipient and the deep appreciation of the Board of Directors and staff of Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo.

ANDY DAVIS

Andy recevied a Young Volunteer Award

Established in 1999, the High School Leadership Award recognizes exceptional high school students from each local synagogue, the local BBYO chapter, and Friendship Circle. Congregational leaders, Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo (JFGT) program staff and leaders, and BBYO members are eligible to submit nominations.

Mazal Tov

Cantor Ivor & Jan Lichterman and Harriet Lacker on the birth of their new granddaughter/great granddaughter. The baby's name has not yet been announced. Proud parents are Hayley & Ari Lichterman.

Special Award Named for Jim Wilson

A special award was given to and named for Jim Wilson at Napco Imports, a Flower Supply wholesale company which sells to retail flower and garden centers. The "Jim Wilson Award" recognizes excellence in those who rise to the standards that Jim established in sales, commitment, and dedication to Napco.

Due to scheduling conflicts, the 2022 award was recently presented to Jim. The 2023 award will be given to a worthy recipient at the end of 2023.

Jim is also the most recent recipient of the CBI Sam Schwartz Minyan Award, and is a current member of the CBI Board.

We wish Jim a special Mazal Tov on this prestigious achievement!

Mud Hens Outing, July 23, 203: CBI Members "Ruled the Roost"

On a sunny Sunday in July, CBI members attended Mud Hens stadium for a fun afternoon of baseball. The Mud Hens played the Lehigh Valley Iron Pigs, which is the minor league team for the Philadelphia Phillies. The final score was 6 Iron Pigs, 2 Mud Hens. Despite the home team loss, the CBI group had an enjoyable experience.

Notes from our Principal

We are looking forward to another incredible school year at David S. Stone Religious School. The annual welcome back breakfast was on August 27th, before classes resumed. It was great to catch up with everyone about their summer events before starting another school year.

This year, we are excited for our Confirmation students to lead us in their Confirmation ceremony on the morning of November 12th. Megan Van Dyke will prepare our youngest class for their Consecration ceremony on December 10th. Congregants are welcome to attend and celebrate these beautiful ceremonies with our Religious School families.

We are excited to welcome back our dedicated staff: Peter Silverman, Megan Van Dyke, Paulette Sherline, Adam Davis, Andy Davis, and Cantor Lichterman.

Many exciting joint events with the Shin shinim will take place again this school year. The shin shinim representatives from Cleveland will visit us three times throughout the school year. I hope that some of our congregants will be interested in hosting these amazing young Israeli's for one of the weekends that they visit our Jewish Community. If you would like to host, please contact me at kbrody@cbitoledo.org.

Our school has again been selected to receive a grant to use the IsraelLINK Israel Education Platform. IsraelLINK allows our teachers access to this innovative and interactive online platform to explore and engage with the rich history, culture, and contemporary issues of Israel.

Happy and Healthy New Year to all of you!

Kim Brody, Principal, David S. Stone Religious School

The David S. Stone Religious School continues at NO COST to Families

We are happy to continue offering a tuition-free religious education to all students of the David S. Stone Religious School

This is made possible through the generosity of an anonymous donor who has established a fund at the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation to pay for tuition to Congregation B'nai Israel and Congregation Etz Chayim students.

CBI Guidelines for In-Person Attendance

In May of 2023, the CDC downgraded Covid-19 as a public health emergency. CBI has updated our attendance policy in accordance with this policy change.

ALL congregants are welcomed back to in-person services regardless of vaccine status.

Mask-wearing is optional.

We ask that if you are feeling ill or are exhibiting symptoms of Covid-19 or other illnesses, that you either avoid in-person services or wear a mask to protect others.

How to access CBI Live Stream Services

On your Computer, Tablet or Cell Phone:

- Go to the CBI website, cbitoledo.org.
- At the top of the home page click on the "Live Stream" tab.
- When the page opens, you will be connected to the CBI live stream service.

On your Television:

You can also access the live stream services through your television if you have a "smart" TV, Roku or streaming stick which gives you access to YouTube.

- Click on the YouTube icon on your TV.
- When YouTube opens, search for "Congregation B'nai Israel
- Sylvania, Ohio".
- Be sure to click on the listing that has the photo with Jewish star (see photo above).
- We recommend that you "subscribe" to the channel so you can easily locate the live stream for future services.
- We also highly recommend connecting to the live stream services on your TV as it is the most immersive and closest experience, short of being in the synagogue.

How to access CBI Zoom Programs & Services

- Check your email for the Zoom link and password for CBI Zoom services.
- Click on the link in the body of the email.
- If you have never used Zoom, you will be prompted to follow steps to download it on your computer.
- After that is successful, click on the link provided in the email, type in the provided password and you will be connected to the Zoom service.

A link and passcode will be emailed to congregants.

CBI Library Books to Read or Re-read

If you are interested in borrowing items from the library, contact Cathy Sperling at (419) 841-1927 to assist you in checking them out.

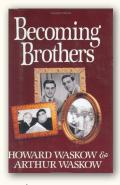

Jewish Noir

edited by Kenneth Wishnia

Jewish Noir is a unique collection of new stories by Jewish and non-Jewish literary and genre writers, including numerous award-winning authors such as Marge Piercy, Harlan Ellison, S.J. Rozan, Nancy Richler, Moe Prager (Reed Farrel Coleman), Wendy Hornsby, Charles Ardai, and Kenneth Wishnia. The stories explore such issues as the Holocaust and its long-term effects on subsequent generations, anti-Semitism in the mid- and late-twentieth-century United States, and the dark side of the Diaspora (the decline of revolutionary fervor, the passing of generations, the Golden Ghetto, etc.).

The 33 stories in this collection include many "teachable moments" about the history of prejudice, and the contradictions of ethnic identity and assimilation into American society.

Becoming Brothers

by Howard & Arthur Waskow

Two brothers—Howard a family therapist and Arthur, the head of the Center for Jewish Renewal in Philadelphia and author of These Holy Sparks, come to terms with their past and present relationship. Despite a loving mother's constant plea to "be close to your brother above all!," the Waskows have felt overriding anger and resentment toward each other throughout most of their lives. The early chapters reconstruct childhood memories. While Howard devotes his boyhood Saturdays to playing sports, Arthur, always the outsider, passes his at the local library, "disconnected from other people".

We're offered intimate, poignant glimpses of family tragedies—ranging from life-threatening illnesses to a suicide and a heart-wrenching decision they must make together which forges a new bond between the brothers. Particularly interesting here are the Waskows' divergent responses to Judaism. Neither brother seems to have come to terms with the other's approach: To Howard, Judaism is an avoidable burden; to Arthur, it's a life-affirming force. Despite enduring differences, the Waskows offer an appealing human drama in writing themselves back to fraternity.

Have you visited the CBI Library Lounge?

You are welcome to borrow any of these books, as long as you sign them out in our provided card box. For security purposes, please contact the office (419.517.8400) before you arrive.
